Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

UMH 139

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of Creation.
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy Health and Salvation.
All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near. Join me in glad adoration.

[2] Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigning,
Bears thee on eagle's wings, e'er in his keeping maintaining.
God's care enfolds all, whose true good he upholds. Hast thou not known his sustaining?

[3] Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do, who with His love He befriend thee.

[5] Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before him!
Let the amen sound from his people again; gladly forever adore him.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

UMH 883

We are not alone, we live in God's world.
We believe in God: who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh,
to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit.
We trust in God. We are called to be the church:
to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone.
Thanks be to God. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of Grace and Glory,
We confess that we lose sight of our identities, finding our worth in our status, our demographic, or even our location.
Forgive us of our idolatry
Forgive us for placing our worldly identities above your love for us.
Forgive us for when we get distracted by elaborate rituals, holding ourselves superior, simply due to our place of birth.

You, O God, are the source of our identity.
You, O God, call us to love our neighbor.
You, O God, challenge us to learn from one another.
You, O God, tell us to be different!
May we swim in your healing waters,
resting in the fullness of being children of God. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

2 Kings 5:1-14

Our text is about obedience and about submitting to authority, but it is also about recognizing the voice of God in the voices of others. Naaman had little reason to listen to Elisha, except that he listened to the voice of the refugee girl whom he made a servant in his house.
What does it take to hear the voice of God? To whom do we listen?

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right to thank you and praise you giver of life, beloved of the poor and forgotten. We praise you for the prophets who in spite of persecution spoke your challenging word. We praise you that in Christ you chose to be born in a stable and revealed to poor shepherds. We praise you for Mary, first witness of the resurrection; and for all the women and men who have been trusted and empowered by you. With all the unremembered, outcast, with the poor and needy, with the trusting and hopeful in all the ages we praise you saying:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

We praise you for Jesus Christ, born of peasant parents, friend of lepers and tax collectors, who chose a life given up for others. On the night before he died he shared a meal with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks and broke it and gave it to them saying:

“This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper he took a cup of wine, blessed it and gave it to them saying:

“This is my life-blood poured out for you. Do this to remember me.”

We remember his death. We proclaim his resurrection. We await his coming in glory.

Come now Holy Spirit of God. Come upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine, that in sharing this feast we may become the body of Christ. Break down walls of selfishness and fear and bring us all to the new age in which none go hungry and all are fed. Through Christ, with Christ and in Christ in the unity of the holy Spirit be all honor and glory now and forever. AMEN.
