

Where were you when I laid
the earth's foundation?
Tell me, if you have understanding.

THOUGHT FOR THE MORNING

This morning, at waterside, a sparrow flew to a water rock and landed, by error, on the back of an eider duck...

This afternoon a gull sailing over our house was casually scratching its stomach of white feathers...

Oh, Lord, how shining and festive is your gift to us,
if we only look, and see.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Job 38:1–13

Bane Vaughn

Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind: “Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

“Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy? “Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb?— when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band, and prescribed bounds for it, and set bars and doors, and said, ‘Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped’?

“Have you commanded the morning since your days began, and caused the dawn to know its place, so that it might take hold of the skirts of the earth, and the wicked be shaken out of it?
