THOUGHT FOR THE MORNING

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful ones." Psalm 116:15 (NRSV)

Rather than seeking its own good, the love of God flows forth and bestows good. Therefore sinners are attractive because they are loved; they are not loved because they are attractive. This is the love of the cross.

-- Martin Luther, Quoted by Allan W. Townsend in A Short Life of Luther

PRELUDE

OPENING PRAYER

In all our weakness and strength,
with our youth-filled spirits and aging bodies,
we come to be your people, O God.

Strong in faith and eager with questions,
singing our praise and whispering our prayers,
we come to be your people, O God.

Filled with saintly determination
yet mindful of our human limitations,
we come to be your people, O God.

Made strong in your endless love for us,
we know ourselves to be yours and
we come to be your people, O God.

May we truly become your people today. Amen.

GLORIA PATRI

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Mark 12:28-34

One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this,

'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Then the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that 'he is one, and besides him there is no other'; and 'to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' and 'to love one's neighbor as oneself,' --this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any question.

OFFERING & REMEMBERING THE SAINTS

God of the Saints; We give you thanks, O God, for every saint who ever worshiped you. Whether in brush arbors or cathedrals, weathered wooden churches or crumbling cement meeting houses where your name was lifted and adored, where your scriptures were studied, your people served.

We give you thanks, O God, for centuries of hands in service: hands groomed, hands stained with grease or soil, Young hands, hands marked with age' Holy hands of every shade raised in praise, Serving hands that cooked, hammered, and held.

We give you thanks, O God, for hardworking saints; Whether hard-hatted or steel-booted, head ragged or aproned, Blue-collared or three-piece-suited they ministered on the earth for you, for us, for our children to come.

We give your thanks, O God, for saints in a season of pandemic; family and friends whose love was taken from us too soon, Caregivers of every kind who put our safety before theirs, employers and landlords who gave us steady wages and roofs over our heads, Cooks and drivers that kept us fed and stocked. So, in gratitude for the gifts of these saints we take a moment to name them before you, and the body of Christ, claiming their lives as a gift to the church:

Today we also light a candle for all the saints who have been lost in this community and in years past that are on our hearts today. (you are invited to light a candle for those you would name)

Finally, we light one more candle acknowledging all the saints who lost their lives to COVID-19. We acknowledge that over 1,200 people in Fairfax, over 736K in the US who have died due to this virus and we pray for their families and friends who are mourning them today.

Thank you, God, for the sacrifices made by those who have gone before us. May we walk wisely in their examples of faith, dedication, worship, and love. We commit to continue their legacy of walking in The Way. May new generations find us worthy to be called saints in your kingdom. In the name of the Creator, the Redeemer, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Go Now in Peace

UMH #665

*Go now in peace, go now in peace,
may the love of God surround you,
everywhere, everywhere you.*

Due to CoVid health precautions, there are several changes in our usual order of service. There is less liturgy and music, and the entire service is planned to be 20% briefer, providing a shorter amount of time inside. Our refreshments are found "on the patio" outside the entrance doors to allow for a more relaxed fellowship time. Also, our children's activities are predominately out of doors through September. As conditions change, so will our protocols. Thank you for your patience and gentleness with one another as we seek to find safer ways to be together.*
